Looking to host a baseball or softball tournament? Culver Community Park, a 67-acre venue with family-friendly entertainment, is the perfect choice. Choose from four fields with professional-grade synthetic turf (two lit for night games) or the natural charm of Chuck Hall Memorial Field, featuring 307-foot lines, a covered stadium, top-tier seating, and full concessions—ideal for a championship game.

PARK FEATURES

- Interchangeable mound & bases allows for all levels of softball and up to 18U baseball play
- Four synthetic turf infields (two lit for night games)
- Homerun fences (290 ft.)
- Full concessions area with a covered patio (11,250 sq. ft.)
- Three batting cages (70 ft. length) with hitting stations
- Covered dugouts
- Ample warm up space
- Additional field space: Consider our covered stadium at Chuck Hall Memorial Field! With 307-foot lines, top-tier stands, and full concessions, it's the perfect setting for a championship game.

WHY CHOOSE THE SAUK PRAIRIE AREA?
